Mrs. Fred Unrath, President Country Club, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriages. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

PREPARE TO STEAL.

Purpose of Dr. Hunter's Visit To The Mountains.

The results of Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter's departure from Louisville and his tour over the 11th district are beginning to be seen, and the reports from the mountains indicate that the chairman of the republican campaign committee, with the assistance of J. H. Newman, the floundering chairman, has prepared the way not only for his own election to Congress from that district, but for gigantic frauds at the State election. Reports from that district indicate that the leaders of the republican party are preparing to go greater lengths than ever in committing frauds upon the ballot on Nov. 3rd. From reliable sources it has been learned that anywhere from 5,000 to 6,000 repeaters will be imported into the 11th district and voted for the republican ticket. These repeaters are secured from the adjacent mines of Tennessee, Virginia and Pennsylvania. As the courts are all controlled by the republican party, the leaders there have no fear of punishment and commit frauds openly with impunity. The following letter from a prominent democrat of Middleboro to Judge S. W. Hager, chairman of the State Democratic Campaign Committee, gives some idea of the schemes and intentions of the mountain republicans, who are willing to go any lengths to secure the freedom of Caleb Powers and the return of W. S. Taylor.

"We had matters in fair shape to secure an honest election in this county until 'Gum Shoe' Hunter came up here within the past few days. We were well satisfied with the result of the registration in Middleboro and in Pineville and also had a reasonably fair distribution of election officers. I am now well satisfied that the republicans will resort to their old-time tactics of bringing in miners and repeaters from Tennessee. I was up at Pineville last night and was advised by the democrats there that we could expect the worst. They are a hard crowd here in this county, and with the hope of a pardon for Powers and the others who are charged with the murder of Gov. Goebel they will go the full length in perpetrating fraud in an effort to win. It does not make any difference what they do, for the republican ticket will be protected by the republican courts. It therefore follows that we may expect frauds. Further, in overwhelming republican precincts they will terrorize our officers and perhaps in a great many instances browbeat them until for fear of personal injury, they will not serve. They claim they will carry this county by over 2,000 majority, and we know as a matter of fact that they can do this with a fair count. In the registration in Middleboro they tried in every way to have fraudulent voters registered, but we held them down to the cold letter of the law. In the precincts adjacent to Tennessee is where they make their steal and I believe Hunter's trip to Middleboro and Knox and Whitley counties was for the purpose of distributing their money and arranging for a system of wholesale frauds. If we could prosecute them in the courts we could do something, but this can not be done, and knowing this, they will simply ignore the law where it suits their purposes."

CHAPTER 50.

An act to provide for amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

Only a Very Few Published.

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every State in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by W. N. Craig.

Had Seven Reasons.

Bishop Willard Francis Mallalieu, of the Methodist church, is opposed to the diminutive salaries that congregations are able to do better, sometimes pay their pastors.

"I once knew an excellent young man," said Bishop Mallalieu, one day in Boston. He was in the church, just married, small salary, but contented and happy.

"Some 12 or 15 years went by. I had lost sight of this young minister—for gotten him as we will sometimes do—when suddenly I met him on Tremont Street, dressed well, but not at all clerically.

"We shook hands. He said he was doing excellently.

"What church?" said I.

"Oh," said he, "no church—the wholesale hat business."

"But why did you leave the church?" I asked.

"For seven reasons," said he.

"And what," said I, "were they?"

"A wife," he answered, "and six children."

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand.

"I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by W. N. Craig.
